

Government Capabilities Statement - USA

From disaster relief efforts and employee relocations to facility renovations and document storage, you need moving and storage support from experienced professionals. Look to PODS as your single solution for such demands. We provide portable commercial-grade containers for transport and storage without the hassle of coordinating separate fleets, government agencies, or storage facilities. Our range of services include on-site storage, access to indoor storage facilities, local and long-distance transport. At PODS, you will also be provided a dedicated account manager who will handle all aspects of each project and specific permitting requirements. To learn more, please visit our website at PODS.com/Government or contact our government sales representative to get a quote.
