WHAT CONCERNS YOUR EMPLOYEE ABOUT THEIR MOVE?

What if I can't find a place to live? US is now experiencing lowest levels of inventory in a generation.

PODS SOLUTION:

PODS can store their home contents in one of storage centers nearby, until they move into their final destination.

Most companies relieve employee stress by offering at least a 2 month rental with every move. This allows employee to concentrate on new job and not trying to get everything done in a few weeks.

WHAT CONCERNS YOUR EMPLOYEE ABOUT THEIR MOVE?

What if our family can't move right away?
The children might need to finish school year; have an elder family member that will also need to relocate and more.

PODS SOLUTION:

Many transferees in this situation, will use a small 7' container to move the belongings that the employee will need, and leave the 'big move' until a later time. PODS offers that flexibility.

Using our partner program for Labor Services, the old home can be packed and loaded, when the entire family is ready for the move.
